The Arch-Bishoprick of this Place is vacant by the Death of Cardinal Caccia, who died here yesterday. Don Simeoni de Torres, Governor of Cremona, died last week, in the 80th Year of his Age; And it's believed, Don Emanuel Borda, Lieutenant-Governor of our Cittadel, will succeed him in that Government.

Turin, Jan. 17. The Duke of Savoy has appointed the Count de Prela to be his Ambassador Extraordinary to His Majesty of Great-Britain, who is accordingly preparing for his departure for England, which, it's said, will be towards the latter end of the next Month. The youngest Son of Count St. Thomas, First Minister and Secretary of State, is made Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to his Royal Righness, who has likewise given him a Yearly Pension of 4000 Livres. We hear, that the Sedition of Mondovi is not yet wholly appeased, and that some of the Inhabitants of that Country have lately appeared in Arms, in opposition to the Duke of Savoy's Officers, whereupon two Regiments of Dragoons, which lay at Verceil, are ordered to march thither to suppress them.

Venice, Jan. 25. We have received Advice, that the Queen of the Romans left Modena on the 17th Instant, and came to Revera, where she was splendidly entertained by the Duke of Mantua, and from thence she went the 22d to Verona, and was received by Signior Foscarini, Ambassador Extraordinary from this Republick, who Complimented her on the part of the Senate. The Queen intended to set out from thence yesterday, and the Ambassador is to attend her as far as Roveredo, on the Frontiers of the Territories of Austria, where she will arrive to morrow, and from thence will continue her Journey to the Imperial Court. Signior Nicolo Sagredo, is made a Procurator of St. Mark, paying 25000 Crowns for that Honour. Vienna, Jan. 30. Count Straatman is arrived here from the Congress at Carlowitz, being dispatched by the Imperial Ambassadors, to acquaint the Emperor with the Conclusion and Signing of the Peace with the Turks on the 26th Instant. By these Treaties, as we are informed, the Emperor makes a Truce of 25 Years with the Gr. Signior, and restores to him the Towns of Lippa, Chanad, and some other small Places between the Maros and the Danube; The Germans are to keep all the Country on this side the Theysse and Maros; And a Line is to be drawn from the Place where the Theysse falls into the Danube to the Save, to make the Limits on that side. The Venetians are comprised in this Treaty, and 'tis stipulated, that they shall restore to the Turks the Fortress of Lepanto, the Castle of Romelia, and Prevesa; the first in the Condition 'tis at present, and the other two demolished; The whole Morea is left to the Venetians, with all they are now possessed of in Dalmatia; And the Republick is allowed two Months time to accept these Conditions. The Polanders have made a Perpetual Peace with the Turks; The City of Caminiec is to be restored to the Polanders in its present Condition, and they are to keep all the Country of Podolia; In consideration whereof, they are to restore to the Turks several Castles and Fortresses in the Provinces of Moldavia and Walachia.
